Thomas, in his "History of Printing in America," Vol. I. 372, has a long account of the arrest of Daniel Fowle on suspicion of being the printer of this obnoxious pamphlet. Fowle himself printed an account of the indignities he suffered in this behalf, entitled, "Total Eclipse of Liberty." Of the work itself, "Tom Thumb," which occasioned all this mischief, not more than three or four copies are known, the general court of Massachusetts Bay having ordered it "to be burnt by the hands of the common hangman, in King Street, Boston."

The picture of King Philip, first published in this edition, is fictitious; so also is that of Col. Church (see Rich, Vol. I. 198), who expresses the opinion that they "are probably among the first specimens of engraving done in New England." The latter is said to have been taken from a picture of Charles Churchill, the poet, with the addition of a powder-horn slung around the neck. This edition is rare.

All these volumes were reprinted or reissued with the dates of 1744–1747 and 1752. CHURCHILL. A Collection of Voyages and Travels, Some Now first printed from Original manuscripts, Others Now first Published in English. In Six Volumes. To which is prefixed, An Introductory Discourse (supposed to be written by the Celebrated Mr. Locke) intitled, The whole History of Navigation, from its Original to this Time. Illustrated with near Three Hundred Maps and Cuts, curiously Engraved on copper. The Third Edition. London: Henry Linlot. MDCCXLIV–VI. 6 vols., folio, pp. lxxii, (4), 668; 2 l., pp. 744; 794; 780; 2 l., pp. 708; 824, Index, 56 l., xxix 305 Plates. BA. 13017

To this edition a copious index is added, and there is some little difference in the arrangement of the articles. The account of books of voyages and travels is also brought down to the present year. Many of the works in this collection have never appeared elsewhere in English. Sir James Macintosh remarks: "The old voyages are always more picturesque and poetical than modern. Churchill and Harris furnish a great abundance of Indian imagery." And Richarderie observes: "This collection is very valuable; its place cannot be supplied by recurring to the original works, as a great part of them are first published in it from the manuscript." In the so-called Mondidier Catalogue, a copy is described as being on the largest paper. It is a work which sells at a price below its real value. In 1825, Wheatley's copy sold for £12 12s.; 1840, Jas. Bohn, mor., £18 18s.; Merly, £12; Reed, £13 6s.; Splidt, £15 5s.; Dr. Heath, £15; Maddison, £20; and Joshua Smith, £22 11s. 6d. It now ranges at from £4 to £6 6s. in booksellers' catalogues.

H. 13018

This work is a translation, with some augmentations, of the introduction to Churchill's collection of voyages. The French editor, in his preface, apologises for the cruelties of the Spaniards to the Indians in this summary way: "It was difficult to use moderation towards beings human only in figure; finally, of these savages were made men, of these animals were made Christians. God is adored where he was not known. The mission truly has not been like that of the first apostles, but the Gospel has been preached and received."

"The importance of this book, for the history of America, has been pointed out in Dr. G. Asher's bibliographical appendix to his 'Hudson the Navigator. London. 1860.' 8vo, pp. 261. ... They also contain the date of his first voyage, which was in 1494, not in 1497, as is generally supposed."

CICERO (M. T.) M. T. Cicero's | Cato Major, | or his | Discourse | of | Old-Age: | With Explanatory Notes. | Philadelphia: | Printed & Sold by B. Franklin, | MDCCXLIV. | Sm. 4to or 12mo, pp. viii, 159. BA., H. 13040

Probably the finest production of Franklin's press, and really a splendid specimen of the art. The title-page is rubricated. The translator was Judge James Logan; and Franklin, in his address, "The Printer to the Reader," calls it, "this first translation of a classic in this Western World," which is not strictly correct. Sandy's translation of Ovid was made in Virginia about ninety years earlier, but printed and published in London; and Franklin himself had printed Cato's "Moral Distiches," Englished in couplets, in 1739, which translation is attributed to James Logan. See our No. 11548. See also Epictetus, infra. It is, doubtless, the second classic author translated and printed in North America, and is eagerly sought after by American collectors. Uncut copies are among the rarest of rare books. I know of but four copies—the two mentioned above, one belonging to Mr. William Menzies, and one to Mr. C. E. Mann, the latter being the copy described in Stevens' Nuggets, No. 551, is on "large and thick paper, and unique"—a mistake. It was reprinted in England as

CICERO. Cato Major: or, a Treatise on Old Age, by M. Tullius Cicero, with Explanatory Notes from the Roman History. By the Honourable James Logan, Esq., President of the

Council, and Chief Justice of the Province of Philadelphia. Fourth Edition. Philadelphia, Printed; Glasgow, Re-printed By R. Urie. M.DCC.LVIII. 12mo, pp. 168, 2 l. 13041

CICERO. M. T. Cicero's Cato Major, or Discourse on Old Age. Addressed to Titus Pomponius Atticus. With Explanatory Notes. By Benj. Franklin LL.D. Philadelphia: Printed by B. Franklin. London: Re-printed for Fielding and Walker. MDCCLXXVIII. 8vo, 2 l., pp. 163. Portrait. 13042

In this edition, Dr. Franklin is made to appear as the editor; doubtless a publisher's trick, to increase the sale of the book. See M. R., LIX. 467. In the last edition the title is:

CICERO. Cato Major; or, a Discourse on Old Age, addressed to Titus Pomponius Atticus, with Explanatory Notes, by Benjamin Franklin, LL.D. Philadelphia: W. Duane. 8vo, pp. 251–357. 13043

This was intended to form part of Duane's edition of Franklin's works, but was omitted.

CICERO, pseudonym. See [Galloway (Joseph)].

"The first part only was printed; the second and third part were seen in MS. in Madrid some time ago, but it is not known what became of them."—RICH. The manuscript of the third part is now in Mr. Lenox's collection. Mr. Prescott bestows much praise on the work, and Mr. C. R. Markham characterizes it as "one of the most remarkable literary productions of the age of Spanish Conquest in America." It is, in fact, the only book which exhibits the "physical aspect of the country as it existed under the elaborate culture of the Incas."—PRESCOTT, II. 328. As long ago as 1835, Mr. Rich priced this at £5 5s.; it would probably sell for five times the price now (1870). In a catalogue of Puttick and Sampson, for 1860, an edition is described as "Anvers en Casa de Juan Steelsio, 1553," which is probably the same as described in our note to No. 13046.

CIEÇA DE LEON. La Chronica | del Perv, nveva- | mente escrita, por | Pedro de Cieça de Leon, | vezino de Se- | uilla. | En Anvers | En casa de Martin Nucio. | M. D. LIIII. | Con preuilegio Imperial. 12mo, 8 l., Text, 204 leaves. C., J.C.B. 13045

On the reverse of the title is the dedication, "Al Mvy Alto," etc. It is a reprint of the foregoing work.

Map. J.C.B. 13046

An entirely different edition, though of the same year and place, apparently pirated from the former, as the typographical execution is inferior. The map is only found in Bellero's edition. There is another edition, "En Anvers en casa de Juan Steelsio, 1554," collation the same as Bellero's edition, but the map, if found in it, is Bellero's.

Appresso Andrea* | Arivabene. MDLVI. | 8vo, 12 l., 215 l., Colophon, 1 l. 13048

Trömel, No. 19, remarks, concerning this edition, that it is "inconnue aux bibliographes." I find the following title in an English catalogue:

CIEÇA DE LEON. La Prima Parte dell' Istorie del Peru. Venetia, Andrea Arivabene. M.D.LVI. La Seconda Parte delle Histoire dell Indie. Venetia, Giordano Ziletti. M.D.LVII. 2 vols., 8vo. L. 13049

This first part is the same as our No. 13048, except the title La | Prima Parte | etc. The second part is by Gomara. Mr. James Lenox writes: "I have two copies, differing only in the title-page; one has Arivabene's mark (the Woman of Samaria at the Well), and 'In Venetia. M.D.LVII. | Appresso Andrea Arivabene, all' Insegna del Pozzo.' | The other, Ziletti's mark of the Star, and 'In Venetia. M.D.LVII. | Appresso Giordano Ziletti all' Insegna della Stella.' | 18 + 324 l."

This, doubtless, is the same as No. 13050, with a new title-page. It is also usually followed by the second part, as above.

CIEÇA DE LEON. La prima parte dell' historie del Perv ... . Venetia: Giordano Ziletti. M D L X. 8vo, (8), 215, 1 l. BA. The second and third parts are by Gomara, and are usually bound up with Cieça. For other editions of these parts, see Gomara (F. L.)

There is a collected edition of the three parts, with the following title:

CLAESSE (L.) The | Morning and Evening Prayer, | The | Litany, | Church Catechism, | Family Prayers, | And | Several Chapters of the Old and New-Testament, | Translated into the Mahaque Indian Language, | By Lawrence Claesse, Interpreter to William | Andrews, Missionary to the Indians, from the | Honourable and Reverend the Society for the Propogation | of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. | Ask of me, and I will give thee the Heathen for thine Inheritance | and the Utmost Parts of the Earth for thy Possession, Psalm | 2. 8. | Printed by William Bradford in New York, 1715, | 4to, Title in English, 1 l., Title in Mohawk, 1 l., pp. 115 + 21. 13180

Its Indian title reads as follows:

CLAESSE. Ne | Orhoengene neoni Yogaraskhagh | Yondereanayendaghkwa, | Ne | Ene Niyoh Raodeweyena, | Onoghsadogeaghtige Yondadderighwanon- | doentha, | Siyagonnoghsode Enyondereanayendagh- | kwagge, | Yotkade Kapitelhogough ne Karighwadaghkwe- | agh Agayea neoni Ase Testament, neoni Niyadegari- | wagge, ne Kanninggahoga Siniyewenoteagh. | Tehoenwenadenyough Lawrance Claesse, Rowenagaradatsk | William Andrews, Ronwanha-ugh Ongwehoenwighne | Rodirighhoeni Raddiyadanorough neoni Ahoenwadi- | gonuyosthagge Thoderighwawaakhogk ne Wahooni | Agarighhowanha Niyoh Raodeweyena Niyadegogh- | whenjage. | Eghtseraggwas Eghtjeeagh ne ongwehoonwe, neoni ne | siyodoghwhenjooktannighhoegh etho ahadyeandough. | Sm. 4to, 2 Titles, verso of each blank + pp. 1–115 – (verso 115 blank) + The Church Catechism, a Morning Prayer for Masters and Scholars, Evening Prayers, etc., etc., pp. 1–21 13181

This interesting volume is a fine specimen of Bradford's printing; and the impressions having been chiefly distributed among the Indians, and by them destroyed, it has become a book of almost matchless rarity. It is the earliest Book of Common Prayer in any tongue in this country. Mr. Claesse is said to be the translator, but the greater portion of it was prepared, some years previously, by a Mr. Freeman, a Calvinist minister at Schenectady, N. Y. In the "Hist. Mag.," I. 14, it is said to be without date or imprint, which is an error, the copy described being imperfect. Some interesting particulars concerning this work will be found in Humphrey's "Historical Account of the Soc. for Prop. the Gospel," c. XI., Hawkins' "Notes," O'Callaghan's "List of Bibles," etc. Lowndes quotes it at two guineas; it would now command ten times the amount. Mr. T. Bailey Myers, of New York, possesses an uncut copy. Mr. James Lenox and Mr. H. C. Murphy have fine copies.

Bartlett's "Bibliog. of R. I." quotes from Prof. Elton's note to (Callender's "Hist. Disc.," p. 210), the title of another tract by Clark, said to have been issued the preceding year, called "A Brief Discourse touching New England, as to the matter in hand, and to that part of it, sci. Rhode Island, where my residence is, together with the occasion of my going out with others from the Mathatusets Bay, and the many providential occurrences that directed us thereto, and pitched us thereon." This abstract fills three pages, and is followed by "A faithful and true relation of the persecution of Obadiah Holmes, John Crandall and John Clark, merely for conscience sake towards God, by the principal members of the church or commonwealth of the Mathatusets in New England, which rules over that part of the world; wherein is shown their discourteous entertainment of strangers, and how that spirit by which they acted, would order the whole world if either brought under them, or should come in unto them. Drawn forth by the aforesaid John Clark, not so much to answer the Importunity of Friends, as to stop the mouths, and slanderous reports of such as are Enemies to the Cross of Christ," etc. Dr. John Clark was the founder of the first Baptist church in Newport, in 1644.

Comes down to the end of the fifteenth century, and is all that was published of the work. The "Edinburgh Review" is rather severe in its criticisms, but allows the author credit for his bibliographical researches. The appendix contains, among other things, Galvano's Discoveries of the World, and Locke's History of Navigation, and Explanatory Catalogue of Voyages from Churchill's collection. See M. This interesting contemporary report is a volume of much rarity. Mr. Rich notices the first edition, and describes it as having pp. 36, and as this has no more, it is difficult to understand how the "Extracts from three Letters lately received from America," etc., should have first appeared in this second edition. See M. "The author considers that the prior discovery by Sebastian Cabot, in 1497, of the coast of a large portion of the continent of North America, and the subsequent grants by English sovereigns, of Nova Scotia, Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Virginia, with their western limits of the latter three extending to the South Sea, gave the English colonists a full right to the vast region embraced within these limits, and that the French, in all their occupations south of the St. Lawrence and the great lakes, were encroachments. — Monthly Review, XIII. 400. "Clavigero was a native of Vera Cruz (born 1731, died at Bologna, 1787), a Jesuit and a thorough antiquarian, who spent thirty years of active research into the archæology and antiquities of Mexico. His book, originally published in Italian, is a mine of precious historical documents, and contains valuable lists of others in the Mendoza, the Vatican, and the Boturini collections. All the other books that have been elaborated since on the same subject, instead of superseding Clavigero's, have tended rather to magnify its importance."—STEVENS. See also Prescott's Mexico, I. 52, and M. R., LXXVI. 633.

The first law providing for the survey of the coast of the United States was approved February 10, 1807. The survey was commenced under the superintendence of F. R. Hassler in 1816, and stopped by Act of Congress, 14th April, 1818. The papers relating to these operations are included in the "American State Papers," class "Commerce and Navigation," in Senate Document 143, 15th Congress, 1st Session, and in Vol. II., New Series, "Transactions of the American Philosophical Society of Philadelphia." The law of 1807 was renewed in 1832, and the survey was recommenced under Mr. Hassler, whose reports extended to 1843, and are followed by those of A. D. Bache, from 1844 to 1865. The volume for 1866, by J. E. Hillard, was published in 1869. These several reports are contained in the Congressional documents of the respective sessions. See also "N. Am. A rare and curious production. The following extract will give some idea of the poetry. The Lady Abbess at Quebec is comforting her nuns, who dread falling into the hands of the English; she reassures them, and says:

"What the whole Nation is I Cannot say, but I'm told by a Lady,
Who was at Louisburg taken by them,
That the officers behaved with the greatest
Civility and Politeness to all,
But in a more peculiar manner, to
The Religious Ladies and Orders, of
All sorts; kept the strictest decorum in
The Town, among the Soldiers, and stuck most Honorably to their Capitulation, &c.
2nd Nun. O! terrible, — if they should take the City —
And we should fall into the hands of those Rough Englishmen!" &c.

[COLDEN (Cadwallader).] An | Explication | of the | First Causes | of | Action In Matter, | And, | Of the | Cause of Gravitation. | New-York: | Printed By James Parker, 1745. | Sm. 8vo, pp. vi, 43, (1). 14267

This edition is a volume of the greatest rarity. I have seen but one copy, which belongs to Mr. William Menzies. The dedication to James Alexander, Esq., at New York, is dated, "Coddingham, in the Province of New York, Dec. 10. 1745," and signed Cadwallader Colden. Concerning its rarity, see Jefferson's letter to Francis Hopkinson, in 1786. See also Sparks' "Franklin," VI. 95, 117, and "M. Rev.," VII. 459; IX. 203; XXI. 397, 500. The first English edition was printed without the author's knowledge or consent. The second English edition was enlarged. Buffon caused it to be translated into French, and there was a German translation published at Hamburg or Leipzig, or both, which I have not seen.

COLDEN. An Explication of the First Causes of Action in Matter; and of the Cause of Gravitation. By Cadwallader Colden. New-York: Printed. And London: Reprinted for J. Brindley ... 1746. 8vo, pp. 75. P. + Second Edition. London: J. Dodsley. 1751. 14268

In Bohn's "Lowndes," p. 491, another edition is described as "The Principle of Action in Matter, the Gravitation in Bodies and the Motion of Planets, explained from those Principles. London. 1752." 4to. Its title hardly belongs to our place, seeing that it does not relate to America; but the work is eagerly sought after by American collectors, and, at the time of its publication, excited much comment.

COLDEN. Explication des Premierès Causes de l'Action dans la Matière et de la Gravitation, traduit de l'Anglais [par Dom Castel]. Bordeaux. Paris: Durand. 1751. 12mo. 14269

COLDEN. The | History | of the | Five Indian Nations | Depending on the Province | of | New-York | In America. | By Cadwallader Colden. | Printed and Sold by William Bradford, in | New York, 1727. | 12mo, Title, 1 l., pp. xviii, 119. 14270

A volume of the greatest rarity, not more than six copies being known in the United States. For some interesting particulars concerning the author, see Dr. Shea's introduction to his reprint of this edition. The work was occasioned by a dispute between the government of New York and some merchants, and is mainly a legal argument.

COLDEN. The History of the Five Indian Nations of the Province of New York. By Cadwallader Colden. Reprinted exactly from Bradford's New York Edition, (1727.) With an Introduction and Notes, by John Gilmary Shea. New York: T. H. Morrell. 1866. 8vo, pp. xl, 1 l., pp. xvii, (1), 141. Portrait and Map. 14271

Of this reprint, 100 copies were printed in 8vo, and 25 copies in imp. 8vo. "Notwithstanding the high position of Gov. Colden, the many offices he filled, and the great service he rendered the colony of New York, no biography of him was ever written. Mr. Shea, in his introduction, has now performed this duty, and has done it well."—BARTLETT. The following work is, in fact, necessary to complete the first edition:

COLDEN. Papers | relating to | An Act of the Assembly | of the | Province of New-York; | For Encouragement of the Indian Trade, &c. and | for Prohibiting the Selling of Indian Goods to the French, viz. of Canada | I. A Petition of the Merchants of London to His Majesty, against the said Act. | II. His Majesty's Order in Council, Referring the said | Petition to the Lords Commissioners for Trade & Plantation. | III. Extract of the Minutes of the said Lords, con- | cerning some Allegations of the Merchants before Them. | IV. The Report of the said Lords to His Majesty on the | Merchants Petition, and other Allegations. | V. The Report of the Committe of Council of the | Province of New-York, an Answer to the said Petition. | VI. A Memorial concerning the Furr-Trade of New-York, | by C. Colden, Esq; | With a Map. | Published by Authority. | Printed and Sold by William Bradford in the City of New-York, 1724. | Folio, Title, 1 l., pp. about 24. Map. 14272

Mr. H. C. Murphy's imperfect copy of this piece is probably unique. It was reprinted with all the following editions:

COLDEN. The History of the Five Indian Nations of Canada, which are dependent on the Province of New-York in America, and are the Barrier between the English and French in that Part of the World. With Accounts of their Religion, Manners, Customs, Laws, and Forms of Government; their several Battles and Treaties with the European Nations; particular Relations of their several Wars with the other Indians; and a true Account of the present State of our Trade with them. In which are shewn the great Advantage of their Trade and Alliance to the British Nation, and the Intrigues and Attempts of the French to engage them from us; a Subject nearly concerning all our American Plantations, and highly meriting the Consideration of the British Nation at this Juncture. By the Honourable Cadwallader Colden, Esq; One of his Majesty's Counsel, and Surveyor-General of New York. To which are added, Accounts of the several other Nations of Indians in North America, their Numbers, Strength, &c. and the Treaties which have been lately made with them. A Work highly entertaining to all, and particularly useful to the Persons who have any Trade or Concern in that Part of the World. London: T. Osborne. MDCCXLVII. 8vo, pp. 20, 204, 283. BA., C. 14273

Colden dedicated his work to Gov. Burnet, and his dedication explains itself; in this London edition, Burnet gives place to Gen. Oglethorpe, and the dedication becomes nonsense. The English editor also shows an antipathy to Indian names, suppressing them habitually, striking out important passages, and, instead of the speeches which Colden gives at length, substitutes meagre abridgments. In fact, the whole work is so cut up and altered, that the reader of the English edition cannot be sure that he is quoting Colden at all. Still this edition is desirable, as it contains many public documents. The following is the same work, with a new title-page only:

COLDEN. The History of the Five Indian Nations of Canada, which are the Barrier between the English and French in that Part of the World. These two volumes contain a collection of essays from the "Pennsylvania Journal," Gaines' "New York Gazette," Parker's "New York Gazette," "The Boston Gazette," and the "Connecticut Journal," published between March 14, 1768, and January 23, 1769. They relate to the political questions of the day, and to the discussion of the question of Protestant bishops in the colonies. By the "Advertisement" on the reverse of the title-page, it appears that a half-sheet of these papers was printed weekly, and served to the patrons of the "New York Thursday's Journal," without additional charge. The "Advertisement" at the end of the second volume calls upon the subscribers to pay up to enable him to "proceed with the third volume." It is a tolerably fair resumé of both sides of the question, which was agitated with considerable warmth. The work is very scarce. I know of the sale of one copy only.

"This work was printed both in French and English, but not published, at the time of General Collot's death, which happened in 1805. More than twenty years afterwards, the whole impression came into the hands of M. Bertrand, an eminent publisher in Paris, who reserved one hundred copies of the English and three hundred of the French edition, and made waste paper of the remainder. The translation was made by an English gentleman, under the eyes of the general himself. The journey was undertaken in 1796, at the request of Adet, minister from France to the United States, for the purpose of obtaining 'a minute detail of the political, commercial and military state of the western part of that continent.' An appendix is referred to, but appears to have been printed only in the French edition. It relates to the general's dispute with the Spanish Governor of Louisiana. The maps and plates are beautifully engraved by Tardieu. A few copies were printed on large vellum paper." — RICH. The following is the English title:

COLOMBO (Cristoforo), the Discoverer of America; born in Genoa, 1435, died in 1506.

Mr. Harrisse, in his "Notes on Columbus," and his "Bibliotheca Americana Vetustissima," has discussed the bibliography of Columbus and his writings at so much length, and with so much industry, that we shall content ourselves, generally, with a reprint of the titles he has given; submitting them, however, to the revision of those American collectors who are so fortunate as to possess the works described. Mr. R. H. Major's "Bibliography" prefixed to the second edition of the Select Letters of Columbus has also been used. His titles differ slightly from Harrisse's. We need scarcely remark that these letters of Columbus are all of the highest degree of rarity, and will range in value from $250 each to any amount which the competition of any two wealthy collectors would realize.

Four leaves, containing thirty-four lines in a full page, without date or place. This celebrated letter of Columbus is the first printed document relative to America, and appears to have been originally written in Spanish. Mr. S. L. M. Barlow possesses the only known copy in the United States. The only other copies known are in the British Museum [2 copies] and the Royal Library at Munich.

With a portrait of Ferdinand on the recto of the tenth leaf, and coat-of-arms of Granada on the verso. Mr. Lenox possesses the only perfect copy known. Two other copies, both lacking the tenth leaf, are known, one in the British Museum, and one which is said to have been stolen from the Ambrosian Library at Milan. This edition was supposed to have been reprinted in Paris by Pilinski about 1858; but, on examination, the reprint was found to lack the first and last leaves.

The only copies in the United States belong to Mr. Lenox and Mr. J. C. Brown. Graesse, II. 73, remarks, that the copy in the Ambrosian Library lacks, in the title, the words "supra Gangem." Mr. Harrisse doubts this.

COLOMBO. Epistola de insulis de|nouo repertis. Impressa| parisius in cãpo gaillardi.| [1493.] 4to, 4 leaves, 39 lines to a full page. 14632

The title in three large black letter lines on the recto of the first of the four leaves, the verso contains the epigram and the woodcut representing the angel appearing to the shepherds, etc. This edition is precisely the same in every respect, and from the same type as No. 14633; it has a subscription at the end, "Christoforus Colom Oceane classis Prefectus," which is omitted in the other. Mr. J. C. Brown, of Providence, possesses the only known copy. See [Harrisse], pp. 20, 21.

"The title is on the recto of the first leaf over a woodcut device of the printer, Guiot Marchant, and on the verso is the usual epigram over another woodcut, representing the angel appearing to the shepherds. The title of the letter succeeds on the top of the recto of the second leaf (a ij) and the text, in black letter, fills the next three leaves. Mr. Brown possesses the only known copy in the United States. There is one in the Bodleian Library, at Oxford, another at Göttingen. Five copies have been made in facsimile, by John Harris, Sen., from the copy in the Bodleian Library. These six works represent the various known editions of the Latin translation of the letter addressed by Columbus to Raphael Sanchez on his return in 1493. Mr. Major considers that the order of publication was (our) 14630, 31, 28, 29, 32, 33." Only one of those six editions contains the name of the printer, his place of residence, and the year in which it was printed. It is our No. 14631. Another has the printer's name and residence, but no date (No. 14633); whilst a third (No. 14632) gives only the place. The other three (Nos. 14628, 14629, and 14630) are all sine anno aut loco. The text, with the exception of variations in the use of contracted letters, is the same for all. The titles differ. In Nos. 14628, 14629, 14632, and 14633, the name of King Ferdinand only is given; in Nos. 14630, and 14631, that of Queen Isabella is added. In Nos. 14628, 14629, 14632, and 14633, the recipient of the letter is called Raphael; in Nos. 14630 and 14631, he is named Gabriel. His family name is spelled in Nos. 14628, 14629, 14632, and 14633, Sanxis; in No. 14630, Sanchis; in No. 14631, Sanches. The translator is mentioned as Aliander in Nos. 14628, 14629, 14632, and 14633; in Nos. 14630 and 14631, as Leander; whilst No. 14631 adds the complimentary adjective of generosus where all the others have nobilis. No. 14629 is the only one which lacks the words "Indie supra Gangem" in the title. Nos. 14632 and 14633 were certainly printed at Paris, and No. 14631 at Rome, which is said, by Morelli, Gianorini, Bossi, and others, to be also the case with Nos. 14628, 14629, and 14630. There are no positive proofs that the latter are Roman impressions, but the probability is that they were at least published in Italy. The type used in Nos. 14628, 14629, and 14630 differ from each other in size, form, and in the employment of contractions. We suppose, therefore, that they were printed by three different printers. Frank Silber, usually called Eucharius Argenteus or Argyrios, is certainly the printer of No. 14630, Guyot Marchant or Mercator that of Nos. 14632 and 14633. Nos. 14628 and 14631 have the same type, and are, therefore, the work of one printer, who is supposed, from the great similarity found to exist between the latter and the books printed in 1493 by Stephanus Plannck, to be the work of that excellent typographer." Washington Irving, in his life of Columbus, is very eloquent in praise of the language used in this first document ever printed relative to the discovery of America, and he considers it, on the whole, as far more authentic and valuable than the subsequent works of other authors, who, for the most part, wrote of things they never saw, and who recorded as facts circumstances and deeds which were entirely fictitious, and existed only in their own imaginations. All other writers, since the discovery of these precious gems, unite in admiration and the warmest eulogiums of their merit and extraordinary rarity, and some state, "Every word of the letter should be incorporated in all future histories of America." Dr. Robertson, notwithstanding his research, was totally unacquainted with their existence.

The above is the title of the only edition of this curious and valuable poem known before 1847. There are 68 stanzas in ottava rima. The whole is reprinted in the introduction to the second edition of Major's "Select letters of Columbus." 4 l., in Roman characters, double columns. The only known copy is in the British Museum. In 1847 the Museum acquired another edition, with the following title:

COLOMBO. Archiv.,' Vol. xv, page 17, sq." — HARRISSE. Stevens' "American Bibliographer," page 67, states that it contains "changes and additions." Five copies of this extremely rare tract were made by the elder Mr. Harris with such exactness, that it requires an expert to detect it from the original.

Title from Harrisse, who describes the copy in the Ambrosian Library. "While still on board his caravel, February 15th, off the island of St. Mary, Columbus wrote two official accounts of his voyage, one of which was addressed to Raphael or Gabriel Sanchez or Sanxis, the Crown Treasurer. No copy, either in print or in manuscript, of the Spanish original, has yet been found, but the discovery made a few years ago, in the Ambrosian Library, of a printed copy of the letter addressed to Luiz de Santangel (No. 14640), warrants the belief that not only it may have been printed, but that it is not irretrievably lost. As to the original itself, notwithstanding the diligent searches instituted by Muñoz in Simancas, and Navarrete in the Lonja at Seville, where, after the establishment of the General Archives of the Indies, in 1792, all documents relating to the Western World had been transferred, no traces of it have ever been discovered. The Spanish text of the letter to Santangel had been made known through Navarrette, who possessed a transcript from the original, which, in 1818, was still deposited among the archives at Simancas. It was not known then, or even suspected, that this important document had been printed before. This rarissime plaquette is printed in a kind of semi-gothic type, of the roughest character, resembling none of the incunabula which we have been able to examine. The fact alone that the text is in the Spanish language authorizes the belief that it was printed in Spain. The text of the Ambrosian plaquette was first published three years ago. It is also in two late American publications. The Marquis D'Adda has lately reproduced the entire letter in facsimile." — HARRISSE, pp. 6, 24, 25, and 27.

"Prompted by the success of Vasco da Gama's voyage, Columbus, fitting out a new expedition, sailed, taking with him his brother Bartholomew and his own son and future historian, Fernando, May 9th, 1502, from Cadiz, with four small caravels. After a voyage of only twenty-five days, the Admiral reached what is supposed to be the island now called Martinique; discovered, July 30th, the unimportant Island of Bonacca, near the Bay of Honduras; ... The above work is a description of the events of this voyage (which was Columbus' fourch and last), only to July 7th, 1503, and is dated from Jamaica. It was originally written in Spanish. ... We have the authority of Pinelo for the assertion that it was printed; but no such Spanish edition has yet been found. An Italian translation, however, either from that printed original or from a MS., was published in Italy very soon after the return of Columbus; it is the present No. 14642. The latter had long been forgotten when Morelli, the modest, obliging and erudite librarian of the St. Mark Library at Venice, corrected the text of Simon de Lovere's edition, and republished it in 1810 under the title now so frequently quoted of 'Lettera rarissima.'" — HARRISSE. See No. 14643, infra. An English version of what purports to be Columbus' account of his fourth voyage, is included in "A Miscellaneous Collection: consisting of An Original Letter from the Pen of Columbus, never before published, some Original Poetry, and detached pieces of Prose; interspersed with a few neat Selections. The whole revised and corrected by a Gentleman of the Inner Temple. London: for the Editor. 1803." 4to, 5 l., pp. 132, (4). The dedication to this work is signed M. H.

First edition; very scarce. "The author was born at Cordova, in 1487, became page to the prince, Don Juan, son and heir to Fernando and Isabella, in 1494. He accompanied his father in his fourth voyage of discovery in 1502, and, after the death of Columbus, made two voyages to the New World. He also accompanied Charles V to Italy, Flanders, Germany, &c.; and, after having travelled over all Europe and a part of Africa and Asia, died at Seville, in 1539, leaving a library of 20,000 volumes, printed and manuscript, to the cathedral of Seville. He was an eye-witness to the facts which he relates in the above volume, particularly the fourth voyage of his father, whose papers and charts he possessed. 'His work is an invaluable document, entitled to great faith, and is the corner-stone of the history of the American continent.'"—English Catalogue. "Louis Columbus, a person of debauched character, came to Genoa about 1568, bringing with him the MS. life of the hero, written in Spanish by his son Don Ferdinand, which he left in the hands of the patrician Fornari, from whom it passed to another patrician, Gior. Baptista Marini. The latter, having gone to Venice, procured a translation to be made into Italian by Ulloa."—SPOTORNO. "Œttinger, in his 'Bibl. Biogr.,' mentions, we cannot imagine on what authority, 'Colombo (Fernando), Vida y hechos del almirante D. Christoval Colon, Madr. fol., 1530.' The learned bibliographer must mean the wretched translation into Spanish made for Barcia (Madrid. 1747. fol.)" On the other hand, according to Barcia, Luis Colon had intrusted the manuscript to one Baltano de Fornari, who, notwithstanding his advanced age, commenced printing the work simultaneously in the original Spanish, in Italian, and Latin, at Venice. If so, some stray sheets of Don Fernando's own version may yet come to light.

With the exception of the first 120 pages of the first volume, the whole of this work relates to America, and is principally historical. The first volume contains an account of St. Domingo, Cuba, the Arctic Regions, Canada, and the United States. The second contains Mexico, Central America, the Antilles, Brazil, Buenos Ayres, Paraguay, the Cisplatine Republic, Patagonia, and the Islands of the Pacific. The third contains Chili, Peru, Bolivia, Ecuador, and Nueva Granada. The fourth, and most important, is devoted entirely to the History of the Republic of Venezuela. The author promises to give, in a fifth volume, a separate account of each province. The dedication to General Paez is signed Feliciano Montenegro Colon, who says that "the following Lessons of Geography, taken from the best authors, were printed in the Havana in 1826," referring, probably, to the first 120 pages, the rest of the work being probably written by him." An extremely rare magazine. It commenced with Nov., 1786, and was continued to the year 1792, forming altogether twelve volumes. It is ornamented with numerous portraits and other engravings, principally by Trenchard, who was one of the proprietors of the work. The others were T. Seddon, Charles Cist, C. Talbot, W. Spotswood, and Mathew Cary. The latter, however, from "the discomfort arising from the discordant views of the different partners, the utter improbability of such a work producing any profit worth the attention of five persons, and other considerations," was induced to withdraw from the concern, and, in January, 1787, commenced, on his own account, "The American Museum." See Vol. I., No. 1162.

Owen.* 1748. 8vo, pp. 71. J.C.B. 15969

The question is discussed of permitting foreigners to settle in the colonies. The conclusion arrived at by the writer is, that it is not advantageous, and that "it is more eligible to increase our own people than to invite over strangers, which is to be chiefly done by encouraging matrimony." The subject of holding slaves is also discussed, and arguments for and against it presented.

his lack of regard for the principles of freedom by maintaining that a man's property, i. e., his slave, is no more entitled to liberty, and remains as much the property of his master when in England as when in a country where slavery is permitted. See "M. Rev.," XLIII. 152.

[COOPER.] What think ye of the Congress Now? or, An Enquiry, how far The Americans are Bound To abide by, and Execute the Decisions of, the late Congress? New York: Printed by James Rivington. M,DCC,LXXV. 8vo, pp. 48. 16590

A rare tory tract against the Congress. The following extract is on the title-page: "It is hoped and expected, that this want of Confidence in the Justice and Tenderness of the Mother Country, and this open Resistance to its Authority, can only have found place among the lower and more ignorant of the People. The better and wiser part of these Colonies will know, that Decency and submission may prevail, not only to redress Grievances, but to obtain Grace and Favour; while the outrage of a public violence can expect nothing but Severity and Chastisement." — General CONWAY. Appended to this tract, with a separate title-page and paging, is the following: "What think ye of the Congress Now? A Plan of a Proposed Union between Great-Britain and the Colonies of New Hampshire, Massachusetts-Bay, Rhode Island, New-York, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, which was produced by one of the Delegates in Congress from Pennsylvania, as mentioned in the preceding Work." [New York: James Rivington. 1775.] 8vo, pp. 4. Reprinted with the following title:

[COOPER.] What think ye of the Congress now? Or, an Enquiry how far the Americans are bound to abide by and execute the Decisions of the Late Continental Congress. ington. London: reprinted for Richardson & Urquhart. 1775. 8vo, pp. 90. 16591

"Intended to dissuade the people of New York from concurring with their sister colonies in adhering to the association, etc., of the Congress."—M. Rev. The author of this tract, quoting from the instructions given to the delegates to the Continental Congress by the colonies, undertakes to show that their desire was to recover their just rights and liberties, civil and religious, and to adopt a plan for the purpose of obtaining a redress of grievances. That the Congress transcended their powers, that the New England Colonies and Pennsylvania had been the cause of the rebellious acts of the Congress, which he characterizes as hideous and detestable. He, therefore, calls upon the people of New York to reject these acts, and withdraw from the association. "The first appearance of this Congress," the writer says, "raised our curiosity, but excited no terror. But it was not long before it turned out to be a perfect monster—a mad, blind monster!"

In a catalogue of the sale of the so-called "Mondidier" collection in London, the following note is appended: "This almost unknown tract, published under the authority and at the expense of the Archbishop of Mexico, contains the date of 1544, both at the beginning and end, and has hitherto been considered the first book printed in the New World. A manuscript note of the late owner says, 'It is unknown to, or at least, unmentioned by all bibliographers I have consulted. Even Ternaux does not seem to be aware of its existence. This is the only copy I ever saw or heard of in Mexico or elsewhere.'" It is scarcely necessary to say that the claim as to priority of printing is a mistake. Señor Icazbalceta, of Mexico, describes three books of an earlier date, and three others dated the same year. Jöcher remarks: "Petrus de Corduba, ein spanischer Dominicaner von Corduba, welches auch sein Geschlechts-Nahme war, gebohren um 1460, studirte zu Salamanca die Rechte, trat aber hernach daselbst in obgedachten Orden, gieng 1510 als Missionarius nach Domingo, wurde Provincial seines Ordens, schrieb el vocabulario en lengua zapoteca, und starb den 29 Jun. 1525."

COREAL. Recueil de Voyages dans l'Amerique Méridionale. Amsterdam. 1738. 3 vols., 12mo. Plates. 16782

For the contents and collation, see [Bernard), Vol. II., No. 4937*a*, and correct the date to 1738. The fact that no Spanish edition of these voyages is known, has led to the belief that no such person as Coreal ever lived. In speaking of the work, Mr. Rich says: "There appears to be no reason to doubt of the identity of Francis Coreal, or of the fact of his having visited the different countries he describes. His relation occupies only one half the work, the other half being made up of a selection from other authors, to which probably the judgment of Marchand, as quoted by Meusel, applies, viz., that the work consisted of fragments taken from several effective voyages by some starving compiler. A certain Rev. Doctor [Dibdin] 'stuck his spurs so hard into the side of his good bibliographical courser,' that he leapt over a good part of the title of this book, as given in Meusel, and makes out Coreal's 'Voyages en les Indes occidentales,' &c., to be a translation of the Flemish journal of Capt. Abel Jansen Tasman!" This Flemish journal is merely one of the before-mentioned relations. See Rich, I. 30–31.

Contains the second, third, and fourth Spanish letters of Cortes, being the second collection of them published to that date. This collection led to the appearance of several translations, as will be seen below. The notes by Lorenzana are of value, being chiefly on local questions. "Clavigero, Messico. 1. 25, says the explanations of the Cordillera or tribute rolls are very inaccurate. These rolls, of which Boturini had a native painted copy, are also copied into Kingsborough's work by Aglio from an outline pen-drawing of them preserved in the Mendoza collection in the Bodleian Library at Oxford."—PRESCOTT, I. 40, note. Lorenzana, in the "Prologo," says he means to reprint the second and third letters, but he adds the fourth also. The "Gobierno Politico," pp. 11-36 is by Vetancourt, apparently from an unpublished manuscript.

CORTES. Historia de Méjico, escrita por su esclarecido conquistador Hernan Cortes: aumentada con otros documentos y notas, por D. Francisco Antonio Lorenzana, Antiguo Arzobispo de Mejico. Imperfect reprint of Lorenzana. Icazbalceta's Colleccion, I, xxxv, notes the various omissions, the addition of plates from Clavigero, and is out of all patience at the modernized spelling. This edition was gotten up for the Mexican market, with a life of Cortes by R. C. Sands. See infra.

Only sixty copies printed. This title is copied from Icazbalceta's Colleccion, 1858, I. xxii, note. The next one of the same letter, is from an original copy, No. 30.

A beautiful piece of typography. In the "Al Lector," on verso of title, Sen. Icazbalceta says, that after printing a first edition of sixty copies, he had reprinted this letter in his Colleccion, 1858, 1. [pp. 470-483], and that he now reprints an edition of seventy copies, of which ten only are offered for sale. This was a secret letter to the Emperor, accompanying Cortes' fourth letter. Gayangos, 1866, pp. 325-339, gives it, with slight variations, from the Muñoz collection of MS., adding that the original is in Simancas. The date is given as Oct. 14 in one copy.

Gayangos is the author of the "History of the Mohammedan Dynasties of Spain," and the translator, with Vedia, of "Ticknor's History of Spanish Literature." This is the only collection of all the known writings of Cortes, and of papers directly relating to him. The collection consists of thirty pieces, that may be classified as follows: Letters and memorials to the Emperor and Queen, 16; letters and memorials of an official nature, 5; narratives relating to occurrences in Mexico, 5; reports, orders, etc., 4. A small edition only was printed, of which but few were offered for sale.

This must be the fifth letter, discovered shortly after Folsom's translation of the first dispatches had been published.

Some copies of the map have five lines of text printed beneath the scale, some have twelve separate numbered leaves more at beginning or end of text, with the tract of Peter Martyr, of Anghiera, first printed 1521, containing: "De Rebus, et Insulis nouiter Repertis | a Sereniss. First Latin edition of the third letter of May 15, 1522. The tract of Peter Martyr is sometimes added, containing twelve folios, numbered, of same impression as before (?), either before or after the lettters. The two letters and the "De Insulis" are sometimes found bound together.

Contains second letter only, translated by Liburnius from the Latin of Savorgnanus as published the same year. An Italian version of the letters appeared in the "Collection of Ramusius," Vol. III., 1556, fols. 225-296 verso, in which the second, third, and fourth letters are given, newly translated from the Spanish, the third and fourth not having been translated before. Ramusius, fol. 225, says, that after diligent research he could not discover the first letter. He also gives the letter of Alvarado and Godoy to Cortes, which were appended to the Spanish edition of the "Cuarta Carta." He then adds the "Relatione di alcune cose della Nuona [sic] Spagna, & della gran città di Temestitan Messico, fatta per vno gentil'homo del Signor Ferdinando Cortese," fols. 304 verso to 310, with two cuts. The original Spanish of this is not known. Icazbalceta, Coll. I. 368-398, copies Ramusius, including the plates, and adds a Spanish translation of this curious paper, which he heads "El Conquistador Anónimo." This is followed by the "Narrative of Alvar Nuñez Cabeya de Vaca," fols. 310-330, verso. Next comes a "Relation of Nuño de Guzman," dated from Omitlan, in Mechoucan, July 8th, 1530, fols. 331-339, which is not copied by Icazbalceta, nor does it seem to have been elsewhere published. Another piece not found in any other publication, the "Narrative of Francisco Ulloa," by an officer of the only vessel that returned out of three sent out by Cortes, is next given, fols. 339-354. Prescott's "Mexico," III. 337, note, refers to this account. Remusius closes his Mexican documents with reports by Vasquez di Coronado, Fray Marco da Nizza, and Hernando Alarcom. This third volume appeared again in 1565 and 1606. See Ramusius. The "Istoria della conquista del Mexico," Florence, 1660 and 1699, etc., is from De Solis.

This title, copied from a foreign bookseller's list, seems to be the second letter only, and it was not printed before 1523, the first Spanish edition being dated Nov. 8, 1522. It is not in the "Bib. Am. Vet." of Harrisse, nor does it seem to have been noticed by any bibliographer. The bookseller ascribes to it the date of 1522 or 1523, and thinks that it is composed from the second and third letters of Cortes.

A French translation of the second and third letters, in an abridged form, appears at the close of the "Extrait ov recevil de Isles nouuellement trouuees en la grand mer Oceane," etc., Paris, 1532, which is said by Harrisse, "Bibl. Am. Vet.," pp. 286, to be a translation of our No. 16952. On leaf 155, begins the "Epitome de les Seconde et Tierce Narrationes de la mar Oceane de Ferdinant Cortese, translatée de latin en francoys." Another French work, entitled "Voyages es conquêtes du capitaine Ferdinand Courtois ès Indes occidentales, traduite de langue espagnole par Guillaume le Breton, Nivernois. Paris. Abel l'Angelier. 1588." 8vo, is from Oviedo and Gomara. (Brunet.) The "Histoire de la Conqueste du Mexique ou de la nouvelle Espagne, par Fernando Cortes," 1691 and other dates, is a translation of DeSolis. The "Aventures et conquêtes de Cortes au Mexique, par Henri Lebrun, Tours. 1843," fourth edition, sm. 8vo, is also probably from DeSolis. The account in the "His. gen. des voyages. 1754." Vol. XII., is from Herrera, etc.

A more correct translation than Flavigny's. The letters are properly numbered, second, third, and fourth. An excellent preface and introduction are added, with additional notes, and an appendix, completing the life of Cortes. The Gottfried collection, Leyden, Van der Aa, 1706 and 1707, folio and 12mo, has a translation relating to Cortes, from Herrera, entitled, "Roem-Waardige Zee- en Land-ttogten na Nieuw-Spanje en Mexico."

CORTES. History of the Conquest of Mexico, by Hernan Cortes, to which is added the Voyage of Vasco de Gama. 1759. 12mo. 16963

Probably from De Solis; perhaps a translation from Prévost. See "Hist. Gen. des Voyages," XII. 1754.

CORTES. The Despatches of Hernando Cortes, the Conqueror of Mexico, addressed to the Emperor Charles V. Written during the Conquest, and containing a Narrative of its events. First appearance of the three collected dispatches in English, being a translation from Lorenzana, including a portion of his notes. See "N. Am. Rev.," LVII. 459. The second letter, translated from Flavigny, by Mr. Alsop, appeared in the "Portfolio," a magazine published in Philadelphia, 1817-18. "The Pleasant Historie of the Conquest of the West Indies," etc., translated by T.[homas] N.[ichols]. London. 1596, is from Gomara. The accounts in Harris, Kerr, Pinkerton, etc., are from Herrera, De Solis, and Bernal Diaz. Some copies were printed on large paper, rl. 8vo.

I.; Prescott's "Conq. of Mexico," 1843; and numerous valuable references in Harrisse's "Bib. Am. Vetustiss.," 1866. It is remarkable that De Bry should not have illustrated the "Conquest of Mexico," and that Grynæus, in his "Novus Orbis" of 1532, should omit all notice of Cortes.

CORTES (M.) Breve Compendio de la Sphera y de la arte de nauegar, con nuevos instrumentos y reglas, exempliphicado con muy subtiles demonstraciones, ... Sevilla: Ant. Alvarez. 1551. Folio, 98 leaves. 16966

A volume of great rarity, frequently reprinted. A map of the New World is on the recto of the sixty-seventh leaf. I have seen an English catalogue in which the work is described [Cadiz. 1551], which is, perhaps, an error, though Graesse has it thus also, and Navarrete, in his "Historia de la Nautica," 1816, p. 163, seems to confirm it.

First edition. A very interesting and extremely rare volume, in which are noticed the discovery of Peru, the Straits of Magellan, Brazil, Rio de la Plata, Canary Islands, Indies, etc. It treats also of the signs of approaching storms, which the writer illustrates from St. Matthew, &c. "Dedicated to the Merchant Adventurers for the Discovery of Landes, Territories, Islandes Unknown, by Rich. Eden." Thorpe priced one, in 1842, at £3 13s. 6d. The other editions are, London: printed by Johan Iugge, Wydowe. 1584. 4to; London: Abell Jeffes. 1589. 4to; London. 1596. 4to; 1609, 45, enlarged by John Tapp. The last edition has the following title:
